EASTER SUNDAY
20th April 2014

Christ is risen, alleluia. Christ is risen, indeed, alleluia!
The Gospels tells us of the failure of the Apostles to realise that 'he must rise from the dead.' It was only when they were confronted by the testimony of the women and the evidence of the empty tomb that they understood.
The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the touchstone of our faith. It authenticated everything he said and did; more than that, it is a source of life for us believers. This feast offers great grace. We should not be slow to seek that grace and live by it.

DIVINE MERCY SERVICE:
Sun. 27th April at 4.30pm (here). Concluding with Mass at 6pm

A NEW OPPORTUNITY:
for adult catechesis; to make us more willing and able to become the Christian disciples that we are called to be. Every Mon & Thurs, beginning Mon 5th May 2014 7.30pm for 7 weeks.
